Cambodian Rock Band at Merrimack Repertory Theatre -- #CRBMRT -- might be the most powerful piece of theater I've seen this fall. With so much of contemporary American playwriting devoted to PC, anti-PC, SJW issues, it's great to see theater deal with issues of real life and death. And the Dengue Fever music is great. Congrats to playwright Lauren Yee for juggling so many balls so artfully. Through Nov. 10.
