The 42nd Annual Elliot Norton Awards Nominations Announced

Elliot Norton Prize for Sustained Excellence Awarded to

Kathy St. George

Ceremony set for Monday, June 2 at 7 pm
The Huntington Theatre
Tickets Now On Sale

More than 140 nominations in over two dozen categories of outstanding actors, directors, designers, choreographers, musicians, and productions and 5 awards for visiting productions were announced today by the Boston Theater Critics Association (BTCA) for The 42nd Annual Elliot Norton Awards. The awards ceremony will be held on Monday, June 2, 2025 at 7 PM, at The Huntington Theatre in Boston. Tickets are now on sale.

This year's recipient of The 2025 Elliot Norton Prize for Sustained Excellence is Kathy St. George, an acclaimed actress based in Boston, whose work has been seen in Boston, New York, nationally, and throughout New England. Special Citations will be awarded to the historic Boch Center Wang Theatre in honor of its 100th Anniversary, Apollinaire Theatre Company in honor of its 30th Anniversary, Greater Boston Stage Company in honor of its 25th Anniversary, and Shit-Faced Shakespeare in honor of its 10th Anniversary. The 2025 Elliot Norton Arts Education Award will be presented to Rehearsal for Life— and their flagship programs Urban Improv and the Freelance Players — which supports students' social-emotional growth through transformative performing arts programming that sparks joy, emphasizes community, and encourages creative expression.

Joyce Kulhawik, president of the Boston Theater Critics Association, stated, "We are now even more fiercely committed to championing our theater artists who dramatize, vocalize, visualize, synthesize, act out, dance up a storm, and speak the unspoken about what it is to be human in this world in all of its glorious DIVERSITY. This is what happens on stages every night all around Greater Boston. This is what we celebrate. This is what we need now more than ever."

The Elliot Norton Awards are presented annually by the Boston Theater Critics Association (Don Aucoin, Jules Becker, Jared Bowen, Christopher Ehlers, Joyce Kulhawik, Charles Munitz, R. Scott Reedy, Jacquinn Sinclair, Bob Verini, and Lynne Weiss; new member as of 4/1/25, Shelley Sackett) to honor the outstanding productions, directors, choreographers, designers, and performers whose work audiences have seen on Greater Boston stages throughout the season.

The Elliot Norton Awards are named for the eminent Boston theater critic Elliot Norton, who remained an active supporter of drama, both locally and nationally, until his death in 2003 at the age of 100. The greater Boston theater community carries on that legacy, proud of its relentless commitment to the arts, more crucial now in the public forum than ever before.

Special and honored guests at the awards in past years comprise a Who's Who of distinguished artists whose work has appeared on Boston's stages, including: Al Pacino, Chita Rivera, Olympia Dukakis, Faye Dunaway, August Wilson, Melinda Lopez, Randy Rainbow, Cherry Jones, Lea DeLaria, Tommy Tune, Edward Albee, Brian Dennehy, Julie Harris, Sir Ian McKellen, Lynn Redgrave, and Jason Robards Jr.

This year's recipient of The Elliot Norton Prize for Sustained Excellence is Kathy St. George. Acting professionally since 1981, she made her Broadway debut in "Fiddler on the Roof" starring Herschel Bernardi at the New York State Theatre at Lincoln Center. She also played two roles in the Tony-Award winning 1991 revival of "Fiddler" at the Gershwin Theatre, starring Topol, and directed by the legendary Jerome Robbins. Kathy made her Off-Broadway debut in "I Love You, You're Perfect, Now Change" at the Westside Theatre. A veteran of five national tours and many regional productions, she has toured throughout the USA, Canada, Russia and Japan. In the Boston area this past year, she appeared in "A Man of No Importance" at SpeakEasy Stage, Charles Dickens' "A Christmas Carol" at the Majestic Theatre with Commonwealth Shakespeare Company, "Urinetown" and "The Drowsy Chaperone" at the Lyric Stage, "Fiddler on the Roof" at North Shore Music Theatre and a New Year's Eve concert at Greater Boston Stage Company with the Firebird Pops Orchestra. In addition to the theatres listed above, she has appeared at the Charles Playhouse, Reagle Music Theatre, Gloucester Stage Company, New Repertory Theatre, Merrimack Repertory Theatre, Ogunquit Playhouse, Long Wharf Theatre, Barter Theatre, Actors Theatre of Louisville, Wilbur Theatre, Actors' Playhouse, Shubert Theatre, Hanover Theatre, Publick Theatre, Rochester Opera House and the late great Stuart Street Playhouse and Copley Theatres. At the Riverside Theatre in Vero Beach, FL she has performed in over a dozen musicals and cabaret shows. Favorite roles/shows include Berthe in "Pippin," Peter in "Peter Pan," Judy Garland in "Dear Miss Garland," "Once," "The Full Monty," "Ruthless!," "Showboat," and "Violet." Kathy was the recipient of an Elliot Norton Award for her performance in "The Divine Sister" at SpeakEasy Stage, and two IRNE Awards for "Das Barbecu" (New Rep) and "And Now Ladies and Gentlemen, Miss Judy Garland." Member of AEA and SAG/AFTRA. A Stoneham native and former second-grade teacher, she holds a B.S. and M.Ed. in Education from Salem State University.
